Case No. 2:23-cv-04459-JGB-AS

JOINT STATUS REPORT REGARDING WHETHER
DEFENDANTS HAVE RETAINED
NEW COUNSEL

Judge: Hon. Jesus G. Bernal

Trial Date: February 24, 2026

1           WHEREAS, on February 5, 2025, the Court entered its Order Granting
2 Defendants' Counsel's Motion to Withdraw as Counsel [DKT. 96] (the "Withdrawal
3 Order");

4           WHEREAS, in the Withdrawal Order, the Court granted Defendants'
5 counsels', the law firms of YK Law LLP and Lucosky Brookman LLP, Motion to 6 Withdraw as counsel for Defendants, and ordered Defendants Emblaze One Inc. and 7 Limitless X Inc. to retain new counsel and have that counsel enter an appearance on
8 the docket by no later than March 7, 2025;

9           WHEREAS, in the Withdrawal Order, the Court further ordered the parties to 10 submit to the Court a status report regarding whether Defendants have retained new 11 counsel in this matter by no later than March 10, 2025;

12           NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereby report as follows:

13           On March 6, 2025, Steven A. Heath of the law firm of Heath Steinbeck, LLP
14 made an appearance as counsel for Defendants Emblaze One, Inc. Jaspreet Mathur,
15 and Kenneth Haller in this litigation.

16           Defendant Limitless X Inc. is represented by Rob D. Cucher of Cucher Law,
17 P.C.

18           Plaintiffs note, however, the statement at page 3 of 5 in the Court's Order
19 "Granting [Defendants'] Counsel's Motion to Withdraw as Counsels" (Dkt. No. 96)
20 (the "Order Granting Withdrawal"): "The Court also agrees with Plaintiffs that if
21 Robert Cucher is indeed in-house counsel to Defendant Limitless, he does not meet
22 the requirements to independently represent the corporate Defendants."

23           Defendant Limited X Inc. states that it had Rob Cucher make an appearance on 24 its behalf, believing he could serve as litigation counsel despite his role with the 25 company; however, in light of Plaintiff having pointed out the above statement from 26 the Court in its Order Granting Withdrawal, defendant Limitless X Inc. requests one
27 more week to retain clearly independent counsel.
